

Dimming

from the IF piece Ocean Beach

James Banks

Soprano
Middle Voice
Bass

When I was a little bit behind on paying rent I paid my rent with money that you sent me for the filling of my time. I could be the very one to bury me in debt But once you see me

7

14

I am only yours and you are never only mine When I wouldn't be the one to see the very, very last To be the very, very last, to be the very, very, very Last to see the dimming of the lights above the harbor of the night. I was struck by lightning in my

21

27

33

sleep and I was struck by how you said you'd be with me along the twisting, twisting of my life.

© 2019 by James Banks, licensed under a Creative Commons license: Attribution-NonCommercial 4.0 International. You may do the following, non-commercially: make and distribute copies of this work, perform publicly, and make derivative works. For full terms of license, see creativecommons.org/licenses/by-nc/4.0/

For commercial uses, email for permission:
banks@10v24.net